

University Liggett School
Job Description
MS/US Band Instructor

University Liggett School seeks a Middle School/Upper School Band Instructor to for the 2017-2018 school year. The position carries a full-time teaching load of five sections – three sections of middle school band, one section of upper school band, and an additional elective in music production. The candidate may also assist in the winter musical if interested and qualified. The workday is from 7:45 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

The ideal candidate for this position will possess experience working with middle school and upper school instrumental students as well as a background in music education. Formal teaching experience is preferred, but recent graduates with the right skill set are encouraged to inquire. Experience with music technology is also desired. Attention to detail, a sense of humor, patience, flexibility, and excellent oral and written skills are a must.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to Bart Bronk, Interim Head of School, at bbronk@uls.org.